

Welcome Back!

Cornell Botanic Gardens is the arboretum, gardens and natural areas of Cornell University. During Reunion our rhododendrons, irises, and peonies should be blooming, and you may still find many spring wildflowers in the Mundy Wildflower Garden and natural areas. At the Nevin Welcome Center and gardens on Plantations Road you can take a tour, chat with one of our wandering volunteer Garden Guides, pick up a visitor map and explore on your own, browse the exhibits and Garden Gift Shop, or just relax and enjoy the beauty and serenity of the gardens and grounds.

Explore Cornell Botanic Gardens on your own using your mobile device:

Take an audio tour of the gardens or arboretum by calling a number found on signs throughout the grounds to listen to short narratives about our gardens, tree collections and other highlights. Use your smart phone to tour Beebe Lake, Mundy Wildflower Garden and Fall Creek Gorge by downloading the "Pocketsights" app to follow a Google-driven map that provides images and information at points of interest along the route (available from the iTunes Store or Google Play).

Parking is available at the Nevin Welcome Center, but may be limited during busy times. You can ride a Reunion shuttle to the Dairy Bar/Stocking Hall on Tower Road and walk down the footpath from there. We are also an easy to moderate walk from most points on campus.
